GENERAL AUCTION RULES

- 1.) All sales are final. No exchanges or refunds on auction items are permitted. All items are sold "as is."
- 2.) All auction items must be paid for in full (cash, check or Visa, MasterCard, American Express) on the date of the auction. Checks should be made payable to Woolly Mammoth Theatre Company.
- 3.) All auction service items must be used by April 26, 2009 unless otherwise specified in the item description. Dates and times are to be arranged at the mutual convenience of the donor and the buyer.
- 4.) Gift certificates or certificates of purchase are given to the buyer when there is no item on display.
- 5.) All auction items and certificates must be removed from the auction site by the close of the auction unless otherwise noted.
- 6.) In the event of a dispute between bidders, the auction chairs shall have sole and final discretion to determine the successful bidder.
- 7.) By his/her purchase, the buyer waives any claims for liability against Woolly Mammoth Theatre Company or the donor of the property or services sold.
- 8.) The auction committee reserves the right to modify the terms of the auction items, including establishing the minimum bid, minimum bid increase amounts and the guaranteed purchase price. Until such time as an item is sold, it is the property of the auction committee of the Woolly Mammoth Theatre Company and can be used at their discretion.
- 9.) After dinner a large board with winning bidder numbers will be posted. Please look for your bidder number and proceed to the check-out table to pay for and collect your winning items. If your bidder number is not on the board, then you did not win an item.
- 10.) Check-out will begin after dinner, in the foyer.

11.) Federal Law allows a charitable deduction for items sold at Woolly Mammoth's Mad Hatter Benefit Bash only to the extent that the amount paid is in excess of the value of goods and services provided. If your bid is less than the fair-market value listed in this program and on your invoice, there is no charitable deduction allowed for federal income tax purposes. All values listed in this catalogue are a "good faith estimate" and were provided to the auction committee by the donor.

SILENT AUCTION

- 1.) Bid sheets are displayed for each item. Bidder is to print his/her assigned bidder number and the amount his/her bid on the bid sheet.
- 2.) All starting bids will be the minimum bid amounts noted on the bid sheet.
- 3.) Each new bid must be written on the first available blank line on the bid sheet and may not be crossed out.
- 4.) If a bid sheet lists a "Buy Now" amount for the item, you may bid at that price at any time while the table is open and guarantee your purchase of the item. If you opt for the "Buy Now," please ask a volunteer to remove the bid sheet from the table. If a bid is entered in the "Buy Now" option, bidding on the item is closed.
- 5.) Items contested at the time a category closes may be auctioned off to the highest bidder by our auctioneer.

LIVE AUCTION

- 1.) The live auction will begin during dinner
- 2.) To enter a bid, raise your hand and bid number. Bids should be made promptly. The highest bidder acknowledged by the auctioneer will be recorded as the buyer.
