TITLE: Technical Director
REPORTS TO: Director of Production
DEPARTMENT: Production

FLSA: Full Time Exempt
DATE: April 6, 2023

POSITION DESCRIPTION:

The Technical Director leads the scene shop in its successful and safe execution and implementation of scenery for the stage, ensuring the process is completed smoothly, within the allotted time, budget, and scope, and in alignment with and service to Woolly's mission and values. The Technical Director reports to the Director of Production.

DUTIES & RESPONSIBILITIES:

PRODUCTION:

Scene Shop Leadership, Mentorship, and Internal Communication

- Manage and support the personnel in the scene shop to promote a safe, healthy, and productive working environment, in line with Woolly's mission;
- Work with the Director of Production to continually improve the capacity of the scene shop and the quality of our work and work place through staff mentorship, coaching and a commitment to professional development;
- Participate in high level brainstorming, planning and budgeting with the Director of Production as a thinking partner and collaborator in expanding the boundaries of the production department's work;
- Adapt to and support many different styles of working, thinking, and collaborating;
- Lead daily check ins with the scene shop staff and other production departments, and attend weekly Production Staff meetings;

Collaboration and Preparedness on Projects

- Collaborate with the design team and other production departments to establish methods for the design and execution of the scenery and/or other elements of productions;
- Prepare and organize the technical information pertaining to the scenery for specific productions so that the productions can be built, installed, and struck by shop employees in a timely, safe, and resource efficient manner;
- Prepare a thorough build, load-in, and strike schedule for each production based on the available staff labor and the calendar issued by the Director of Production;
- Prepare a thorough cost out of each and every production with flexibility, contingency and creativity to maximize resources in an efficient manner, with suggestions and plans to adhere to the allocated budget and resources;
- Maintain a proactive dialogue with the designers to ensure that changes to the design are communicated to the appropriate members of the production team;
- Lead the execution and monitor the progress of technical drawings for all scenic elements based on the designer drawings so they can be built by the shop staff;
- Collaborate with presenters to ensure all technical specifications and requirements can be met safely in our space, ensuring presenters have a clear understanding of and adhere to all our safety measures;
- Attend Production Meetings, including production meetings after all technical rehearsals.

Scene Shop, Technical Maintenance and Safety

- Actively support Woolly's commitment to safety in the workplace, including participating in Woolly's Safety Committee and leading the curation and implementation of new and improved safety practices in the scene shop, theatre, and technical work spaces;
- Proactively update staff on the conditions of the theatre space, especially when the theatre is a construction zone during changeover;
- Maintain an up-to- date inventory of resources, tools, and supplies, with special awareness and focus on upkeep and maintenance according to equipment guidelines;
- Ensure continued scene shop support and maintenance throughout a show's run as well as proper archival upon closing.

FACILITIES:

Safety and Code Compliance

- Prioritize maintaining the facility and using the technical production skill set in service of the well-being of the facility;
- Maintain facility spaces and equipment according to city and state regulations, ensuring code compliance;
- Actively monitor and consider fire safety and maintenance in all aspects of the facility and work.

Inventory and Resource Management

- Maintain up-to-date drawings of all facility spaces in the building with as much detail as possible, including but not limited to electrical outlets, data ports, and fire extinguishers;
- In coordination with the Associate General Manager, maintain an up to date inventory of facility resources including but not limited to replacement parts, spare flooring, paint, and electrical covers.

COMPANY-WIDE RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Commit to Woolly's policy of anti-racism and radical inclusivity. This includes participating in anti-bias/anti-harassment training, familiarizing yourself with the policies in the employee handbook, engaging in EDI work at Woolly, and furthering your own independent journey with anti-racism.
- Cross-departmental collaboration, including participating in at least one Woolly working group, committee, and/or taskforce outside of your own department.
- Advocate for policies both internally and externally that further advance Woolly's stated values on an organizational, local, and national scale.
- Contribute in meaningful ways to the culture. See "Our Culture at Woolly" section below for more information.
- Act as an ambassador for Woolly Mammoth in the local community and beyond.

SUPERVISORY RESPONSIBILITIES:

COMPENSATION:

- Salary: starting at $63,000
- Woolly Mammoth Theatre Company recognizes that conversations about salary can be difficult. In recognition of the necessity for top-tier talent, we strive to provide pay that meets the market by leveling with industry peers to determine the pay range for each position. Where the employee falls in that range is determined by experience and skill set. Woolly will work hard to administer the compensation program in a manner that is transparent, consistent, and equitable across the company.

OUR CULTURE AT WOOLLY:

At Woolly, our culture is driven by our stated core values of radical inclusivity, creative risk-taking, relentless inquiry & experimentation, world-class excellence, and innovation. We expect both personal and collective accountability in how these values are applied to the work of each employee of WMTC. We acknowledge that Woolly Mammoth has upheld and benefited from systems of oppression in our country and we aim to do better; using the principles of anti-racism to guide our actions and decision-making. How we do things is as important as what we do, and we expect our core values and anti-racist practices to influence the way we work together as a team. We strive to center openness, integrity, and care in our policies, processes, and how we interact with one another. We embrace a culture of transparency, accountability, and mutual respect as the foundation of all our collaborations, both inter-departmentally and externally. We take seriously our role as a civic leader, and strive to address local and national challenges using our knowledge, skills, commitment, and resources. As part of this work, all employees are expected to develop meaningful internal and external relationships that are mutually beneficial and impact-aware. We believe that everyone in the Woolly community is worth engaging in conversations about the art we make and how that art intersects with the world. We lean into the unconventional, especially if a nontraditional and inventive approach will help us reach new understandings of our art form, our industry, and our world.
