A NOTE FROM MARIA

I dare you to say the title of this play without cracking a smile.

It should come as no surprise to many of you that it is impossible for me to say this title without giggling.

I must confess something to you: there was a time in my life when I seriously contemplated going to clown school. I don't usually like clowns, at least not the 1980s Big Apple Circus ones who showed up at Flushing Meadows every summer and didn't even seem to like children. It was later in college as I started to learn about the varied forms of this type of physical theatre—from early Italian commedia dell'arte to Bouffon to mime to slapstick to so much more—that I fell in love. And I quickly found out how hard it was to perform it well.

I wasn't surprised when I heard that Julia had studied at L'École Philippe Gaulier, whose alumni include Sacha Baron Cohen, Simon McBurney, Emma Thompson, and Helena Bonham Carter. One of Gaulier's teachings to his students: "Your mission will be to carry storms of light, playful and dazzling emotions into lively and daring theatres."

What's so hard about being a clown? Well, it's all about living completely in the present moment. An actor gets to be in a scene with a script and character to guide them. In improv there are usually given circumstances created at the top of the sketch. But in Julia's case, what happens every night cannot be planned. This is what feels so risky and exciting about it! Her art depends entirely on her being open and fully present with her audience so that hopefully they themselves will open up to her. And in this exquisite vulnerability, she and each audience create something entirely new every single night. And it's very very funny. It may take the sage years to contemplate what it means to fully embrace the unknown, yet for a clown, this is an absolute prerequisite. So I'm also not surprised that the word people most often use after her show is not only "hilarious" but also "profound."

There is a great capacity for feeling, buoyancy, and laughter in this kind of work. I don't know about you, but I may have a problem or two that could certainly use some help! Or at least a little levity to lift some of the weight off my shoulders...

I will leave you with Julia's own words: "Clown is really about connection. Maybe right now everyone just wants to be connected." Amen.

Hasta la próxima,

JULIA MASLI

JULIA MASLI (she/her) is an award-winning clown from Estonia, based in London.

All she wants to do is solve people's problems and eventually win the Nobel Prize, presented to those who have conferred the greatest benefit to humankind. But this plan keeps going wrong as she continually wins prizes for comedy.

It was bad enough when she was the winner of the Malcolm Hardee Award for Comic Originality in 2019 and her debut show 'CHOOSH' – about a migrant's struggles in the USA – was one of the most acclaimed comedy shows of the Edinburgh Fringe in 2022. But in 2023, things spiraled when she set out to help audience members in 'ha ha ha ha ha ha ha', which you can read about in The New York Times here.

This serious, important event was nominated for Edinburgh's top prize for Best Comedy Show and named number one comedy show of the year by the 'Guardian', before being invited for a four-week, completely sold-out run at London's Soho Theatre. Despite the seriousness of Julia's intentions, the show was once more shortlisted for Most Outstanding Show at the Melbourne International Comedy Festival after another total sellout season. From there, it transferred directly to a four-week run at Soho Playhouse in New York City.

OPENING NIGHT: JULY 18, 2024

SHOW RUN TIME: This performance runs for a duration of 60 minutes continuously, without an intermission.

CREATIVE TEAM

KIM NOBLE (Co-Director, he/him) was a critically acclaimed artist and performer from London. He used to be quite good at stuff like theatre. He got an award but he just isn't that good anymore so he's trying his hand at directing. He currently lives with his mum and is re-writing a book that probably won't be published. www.mrkimnoble.com.

ALICE WEDGE (Costume Designer, she/her) is a Womenswear Fashion Designer specialising in creative drape. She takes a lot of her inspiration from art history, tribal robes and knots, diving into research to create a rich storytelling within her designs. Alice graduated from Nottingham Trent University with first-class honours and was featured in Vogue Magazine as a graduate to watch. With nine years of industry experience, she has designed for brands like Vivienne Westwood and Tommy Hilfiger. Coming from a creative family, Alice's parents both successful artists and her sister an art director, the artistic environment always influenced her. It was also a musical household which led to her love for Opera which continues to inspire her. Based in London, she is now focused on starting her own fashion venture under her name 'Alice Wedge', transforming existing fabrics into elegantly draped, limited edition pieces.

DAVID CURTIS-RING (Costume Designer, he/him) is a queer British artist based in London and working internationally. He specialises in spatial design and costume for performance, photography and installation. His practice is centred around the storytelling possibilities of contemporary sculpture; whether that be in a gallery, worn on the body or installed into a store. No matter the medium, his otherworldly interpretations of nature are characterised by a playful approach and mythic strangeness, with handmade craftsmanship being key. He is best known for his production design for Pink Floyd's The Endless River, for his collaborations with fashion designer Craig Green and for his theatrical designs for writer/performer Bryony Kimmings. He has art directed music videos for Arctic Monkeys, Sinéad O' Connor and created numerous multi sensory installations for Italian brand C.P. Company. Follow him @davidcurtisring.

ANNIKA THIEMS (Costume Designer, she/her) is a German multidisciplinary artist based in London. By fusing functional clothing with psychoanalysis, she creates wearable sculptures that reveal the fragility of the human mind and body. She applies couture tailoring to perishable and discarded materials like dried herbs, reclaimed fabric and single-use packaging in a process that mirrors free association. Thiems regularly creates custom garments and installations across the visual and performing arts, including Damsel Elysium's EP launch (2024), Madelon Vriesendorp's exhibition at the Cosmic House (2023-24), Shirin Fathi's performance at the Victoria & Albert Museum (2024), and Paulina Lenoir's cabaret and solo show at Soho Theatre (2022-24). Thiems holds degrees in Psychology and Curating and was the recipient of the 2019 NEON Curatorial Award hosted by the Whitechapel Gallery. She previously worked at the design office Zak Group and arts organisation Forma.

ALESSIO FESTUCCIA (Sound Designer, he/him)

is an Italian Sound Designer based in London, his special skillset combines technical aptitude with creative intuition. In the course of his professional experience, he has worked as sound designer, music producer (Mr Everett, Alèfe, Tersø), and re-recording mixer for adverts, short films, documentaries, and immersive audiovisual projects. He has recently featured as Sound Mixer for Netflix's Bad Dinosaur (2024), and his credits include editorial work for Armani and Vogue. His work was showcased at Dolby headquarters in London as a result of a workshop in composition for Dolby Atmos at Peter Gabriel's Real World Studios in 2023. IG: @alefesounds.

LILY WOODFORD (Lighting Designer, they/them) is a technical designer who specialises in lighting design and multimedia work. They live in London, U.K. on a boat that they refurbished themselves and studied at Goldsmiths, University of London where their love of all things beautifully strange was solidified. They thrive on creating work that pushes the boundaries of conventional design and building powerful, thought provoking spaces. They have worked as a multidisciplinary designer for productions such as Julia Masli ('ha ha ha ha ha ha ha'), Frankie Thompson ('CAttS', 'Body Show'), Liv Ello ('SWARM', 'Jack the Mack', 'Body Show'), Adrian Bliss ('Inside Everyone'), Eloina ('HIGH STEAKS'), StampTown Comedy ('STAMPTOWN').

Special presentation to benefit Woolly Mammoth Theatre Company.

This excavation of the testimonies of Anita Hill and Christine Blasey Ford is revisited in the nation's capital in a special debut presentation of a new play. Ford and Hill, 30 years apart, stood in front of one of the highest bodies of power in our country to publicly tell their stories about some of the most private moments of their lives. With an ensemble of four actors speaking from the verbatim transcripts of these pivotal hearings, these two women's stories are seen in a new light when side-by-side in Waterwell's illuminating new work.

ABOUT WOOLLY MAMMOTH

The Tony Award®-winning Woolly Mammoth creates badass theatre that highlights the stunning, challenging, and tremendous complexity of our world. Woolly is proud to be considered “a national champion of the new—and frequently provocative—American play” (Washington Post).

For over 40 years, Woolly has maintained a high standard of artistic rigor while simultaneously daring to take risks, innovate, and push beyond perceived boundaries. Woolly Mammoth was co-founded in 1980 by Roger M. Brady, Linda Reinisch, and Howard Shalwitz and is now co-led by Artistic Director Maria Manuela Goyanes and Managing Director Kimberly E. Douglas. Located in Washington, DC, equidistant from the Capitol Building and the White House, this unique location influences Woolly’s investment in actively working our mission: To produce courageous and invigorating new work to radically redefine theatre as a catalyst for an equitable, creative, and engaged society.

One of the few remaining theatres in the country to maintain a company of artists, Woolly serves as an essential research and development role within the American theatre.

PLAYS PREMIERED HERE HAVE GONE ON TO PRODUCTIONS AT HUNDREDS OF THEATRES ALL OVER THE WORLD AND HAVE HAD LASTING IMPACTS ON THE FIELD.

A STRANGE LOOP was produced at Woolly in 2021, ran on Broadway from April 2022 through January 2023, and won the Tony Award® for Best Musical in 2022. Other notable highlights include the world premiere productions of Danaï Gurira’s ECLIPSED in 2009 that later went on to be the first Broadway play with a cast & creative team of all Black women; Bruce Norris’ Pulitzer Prize-winner CLYBOURNE PARK in 2010; and Anne Washburn’s MR. BURNS: A POST-ELECTRIC PLAY in 2012. Woolly produces theatre beyond our building by sending productions like Aaron Posner's STUPID F*CKING BIRD across the nation, bringing Aleshea Harris' WHAT TO SEND UP WHEN IT GOES DOWN to neighborhoods throughout DC, and launching a national tour of Madeline Sayet's WHERE WE BELONG.

Woolly has built a reputation for innovation off the stage as well. Woolly values building relationships with its local community and resident artists in the DMV area. Our nationally-acclaimed Connectivity Department is one of the ways we accomplish this by linking Woolly to like-minded community organizations in order to generate mutually beneficial, impact and power-aware partnerships.

WE'VE EARNED OUR REPUTATION BY HOLDING FAST TO OUR CORE VALUES.

We are an anti-racist and radically inclusive community—across race, ethnicity, nationality, age, gender identity, sexual orientation, physical ability, socioeconomic background, and political viewpoint—in which all are encouraged to exchange ideas freely and reach for new understanding. We are a supportive home for creative risk-taking by our company and guest artists, staff, board, volunteers, audiences, donors, and colleagues. Through relentless inquiry and experimentation, we strive for world-class excellence and innovation in every aspect of our work.

OUR AUDIENCE COMPLETES OUR MISSION.

Woolly attracts one of the youngest and most diverse theatre audiences in DC, and we're committed to making our work widely accessible. Woolly was the first to pioneer Pay-What-You-Will tickets in the DMV, which are now available at every single performance. We also offer $25 day-of-show Stampede Seats, $25 tickets for all patrons 30 and Under, and a variety of discounts for educators, members of the military, and artists.

THANK YOU TO ALL OF OUR DONORS, SUBSCRIBERS, AND AUDIENCE MEMBERS. WITH YOUR SUPPORT,
WE WILL CONTINUE TO FIND AND PRODUCE THE MOST INNOVATIVE NEW PLAYS IN AMERICA.

LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Woolly Mammoth acknowledges that our theatre stands upon occupied, unceded territory: the ancestral homeland of the Nacotchtank whose descendants belong to the Piscataway peoples. Furthermore, the foundation of this city, and most of the original buildings in Washington, DC, were funded by the sale of enslaved people of African descent and built by their hands.

WOOLLY MAMMOTH

WHY GIVE?

Unlike the Woolly Mammoth, which went extinct more than 10,000 years ago, Woolly Mammoth Theatre Company isn't going anywhere anytime soon. The reason? People like you! Over our 40+ year history, contributions from patrons continue to provide the bedrock of support that makes everything we do possible.

YOUR GIFT TO WOOLLY MAMMOTH ALLOWS US TO:

Produce innovative theatrical productions you cannot see anywhere else.

Offer ticket accessibility programs such as Pay-What-You-Will seats for every performance, ensuring our work remains accessible to all.

Pilot radical care programs like our Company Pool Fund, which offers grants to our Company members to invest in their personal and professional growth.

Provide transformational career development opportunities through the Miranda Family Fellowship program to train and compensate the next generation of theatre makers.

Establish innovative collaborative partnerships with local organizations like SPIT DAT, DC's longest running open mic, THEARC Theater, and Howard University.

And so, so much more!

"In my view, theatre arts endure as one of humanity's greatest achievements—speaking across centuries and civilizations. I want Woolly's bold voice to continue these critical conversations across cultures and between generations. So...through my estate I've planned for the future, mine and Woolly's" – Donna Ari, Mammoth Forever
